

HEREWORTH
DESIGNED FOR BOYS

Boarding Update, 2011 Term Three, Week Two.

Dear Parents,

We have now settled back into the new school term. James Li and Nova Forsyth-McEvedy have left us but Jessiah Malik and Baylee Reriti have joined us. Bacardi the cat was very pleased to have the boys back again as well.

On Sunday as a treat, the boarders who were in for the weekend had breakfast at McDonalds. We went in the school van with Mrs. Hill and Matron and I ate a Kiwi Big breakfast and others had cheeseburgers and hot chocolates or juice. After that we went back to school and I cleaned the van inside and out and got 20 merit points. The others played tag.

This week another new boy started as a weekly boarder. He is Jake Lochore from Porangahau. He knows a few boys and has settled in really well.

We now have another “Hereworth Green” leather lounge suite and footrest, which we bought from Trademe. Five boys can sit on it with a squeeze. We now have four leather couches in the TV room and lots of bean bags—plenty of seats for everyone now. Mr. Exeter has claimed back his very comfortable couch which we had “on loan”.

This week 8GE is having their turn at the “boarding experience” and tomorrow the choir boys leave for the Wellington Choir trip. They have been busy packing today.

Mr. Exeter and some of the Year 8 boys started making the new dorm names for the rest of the dorms. I do not know what they are yet or which dorms will be given a name.

Tonight’s news written on behalf of the boarders by Jackson.
