

HEREWORTH
DESIGNED FOR BOYS

Boarding Update, 2011 Term Three, Week Nine

Dear Parents,

We are almost at the end of Term Three and Sandy Lane is on everyone's mind. This will be held on Friday with the Winter Sports prizegiving to be held right afterwards.

We have had a very busy few weeks lately, with exams last week. We are pleased that they are now all over for the year. After the exams we had the school formal dance for Year 7 and 8's to look forward to. This was last Friday night and as usual the Year 7 boys who had not experienced this before were a bundle of nerves and the Year 8 boys could not wait!!! The boarding house was buzzing with anticipation as boys were busy getting themselves ready.

Last minute advice from Dad

and Mr. Jensen

After waiting for a while in the Board Room under the watchful eye of Mr. Scott we were at last allowed out onto the verandah at the front of school to meet the girls as they arrived. Rupert Waugh-Trail was the first out to meet the girls!!! The Year 7's who were still inside waiting were very excited. Eventually the room cleared and all the boys had met and escorted a girl or three into the hall which had been decorated up in a RWC theme. As we went in Mr. Lomp took photos of everyone standing under the "goal posts" which were at the entrance.

We loved the dance and the supper was nice. Thank you to all the parents who decorated the hall for us and to the kitchen staff for the supper. We can't wait until next year.

Last Monday the “garden club” at last got their chickens. Mr Bernstone assisted by the boys, have built a chicken coop, painted it Hereworth green and it is now parked down in a fenced off area near the garden. We bought eight chickens and Mrs Luke clipped their wing feathers to keep them from flying out and they were settled into their new surroundings. By the next day we had three eggs, and each day collect about five. The day boys in the garden club were the first to have a turn at feeding them and managed to use a bag of chicken food which was meant to last a month, in the first week. They are now on a diet of grass and kitchen scraps. They are going to be a lot of fun to look after and they are keeping the Junior's amused as they go to look at them during break.
