Boarding Update: Term One: # 5

Dear Parents,

We are sorry there was no newsletter last week because most boarders away at camp, and only the Year 5 and 6 boys were here. Speaking of the camps, last week, Matron had looooooooooads of clothes to wash on our return to school. Yuk!

In the mean time the Year 5 and 6 day boys were enjoying their first “Boarding Experience” by staying overnight in the boarding house. Everyone enjoyed the experience, even the morning runs. They had a lovely meal, beef olives, mashed potato and vegetables followed by icecream and chocolate sauce, went to prep, and did everything that boarders do. The Year 6 boys repeated the experience on Wednesday night.

On Tuesday evening as most were away at camp, Mr. Chatfield organised one of his “fun evenings”. This time it was a DVD on the BIG screen in his classroom. This is a white sheet on the wall, with the movie playing on the projector. He also bought eight bags of popcorn which Matron and Jonty cooked in the surgery microwave, to be shared among the boys.

Unfortunately JASPER and I (Ben.P) were not there, but the full boarders had an outing to Ocean Spa on last weekend. They had a great time swimming, while Mr. Exeter relaxed on a deck chair (with regular checks on the boys to see what they were doing.)

This week the Year 8 day boys are having a taste of the boarding house for a night. One class will be here each night. I'm sure they are having fun. The morning runs were a bit of a shock to some, especially Yong Woo from 8PG who wondered why ANYONE would get up and run so early in the day. Tonight we had a run through of the evacuation drill and were then allowed to stay up a little longer watching television before bed. We hope all of the 8KJ boys are having a great taste of boarding life. Tomorrow it will be the turn of 8GE.

Week 5: Boarder of the Week was Jonty Scoular who has settled in so well.

Week 6: Thomas Koko for his very positive attitude and cheerfulness.
