Like one of author Roald Dahl's most famous characters, Matilda, the Hereworth School book-loving quiz team was full of the right answers.

The group — Niklas Buddo, Sam Davies, Jamie Rickman and Sam Tremain — picked Dahl's books as their specialty topic for double points.

The gamble paid off as they scooped the Hawke's Bay Literacy Quiz for the second time in three years, from 24 teams.

Herewith principal Ross Scrymgeour said the result was a positive one for an all-boys school and that they had tackled all 100 questions in 10 categories, from fantasy to non-fiction.

The school's team also topped half of the categories.

The win qualifies them for
