

Low male teacher numbers

Criminal

...maybe not criminal but certainly education's 'most wanted'. At Hereworth school we think education for boys is a tad PC. It's too risk averse and wraps them in cotton wool. This doesn't suit the boys, or their teachers, which is partly why male teachers in primary schools are as rare as the proverbial.

Our environment lets 'boys be boys' and that goes for teachers too. We're proud that half our staff are male and we're not afraid to say it. In fact, with a 50:50 male to female teacher ratio, we think we win the PC debate hands down.

If you want to see a school that's designed for boys, come to our

Open Morning

Tuesday 17 March

from 9am to 12noon

Designed for Boys

www.hereworth.school.nz

Te Mata Rd, Havelock North
Hawkes Bay 06 8778138